November 2017

Dear Parent/Carer

Creative Digital Media Production Revision Guides

Students on the Creative Digital Media Level 3 course will be sitting their Unit 1: Media Representations examination in May 2018.

The exam board have released two publications to prepare students for this examination – a revision guide and revision workbook, with a recommended retail price of £10.99 each.

I am pleased to inform you that, if purchased through school, we are able to achieve a significant cost saving on this price, enabling us to obtain copied for just £7.00 each. The revision guide provides a one topic per page summary of the information required for the Unit 1 examination and also three additional externally-assessed units students will be taking in Year 13. The revision workbook provides lots of practical examples and activities for students to work through in preparation for their assessments

If your child would like to take advantage of this opportunity, then please make a payment of £7 per publication required via the ParentPay system by the end of November 2017.

Yours faithfully

Mr J Illsley
