Dear Parent/Carer

Othello Trip

On Tuesday 10th July 2018, we are intending to run a trip to see a production of Othello at the Everyman Theatre, Liverpool. We would leave QEGS bus bay at 16.30 (so I ask that your child is there by 16.10) and return to QEGS bus bay at approximately 00.30 (we will have a trip mobile number which students will contact you on to keep you updated, if they do not have their own).

Your child has expressed a keen interest in attending and so, in order for the trip to go ahead, we need the payment to be made via parentpay* by Sunday 3rd June 2018. The total cost of the ticket and return transport is £38 per student. A few students are entitled to the bursary and this will be arranged separately and those students will be notified. If we do not have the payments by the deadline, the trip will not be able to run. Also, due to the fact that we cannot reserve the tickets, there is a chance of the trip not being able to run, if all tickets have sold out by Monday 4th June. In the case of it not running, any payments will be returned minus the ParentPay transaction fee.

Othello based questions are worth two-thirds of the marks on the A-Level Paper 1 and so those who attend are going to be able to solidify their learning from this year and be able to use the experience to inform their essays.

We would ask that the students bring a 'packed dinner' for the coach journey in case we get stuck in traffic and do not have time to purchase food there, but if there is time we might be able to organise a quick meal/snack in a neighbouring restaurant.

As always, the students will be representing QEGS and so we ask that they dress smartly and appropriately for the trip to the theatre.

If you have any queries, please email Angris@qegs.email

Yours faithfully

Bethany Angris
