Dear Parent/Carer

Project Spitfire

Trip Leader: Mr Kershaw

As part of the schools' BTEC Engineering delivery, your son has been involved in 'Project Spitfire'. This project now culminates in a double presentation by the group to KMF Engineering in Newcastle-upon-Lyne and Stoke Potteries Museum in Hanley, Stoke-on-Trent on Tuesday April 2nd 2019.

The visit will take up a full day and will be broken into 2 sessions:

Presentation 1: 10am with a tour of the KMF facility.

Presentation 2: After lunch at the museum facilities in the Mitchell building attached to the Potteries museum.

A 17 seat mini bus will depart from school at 8:40am and return in time for 3:55pm school day closure. There is no cost for this trip. Lunch provided will be provided by the Potteries Museum. Students are expected to wear their school uniform.

Could you please complete and return the reply slip to Mr Kershaw by Monday 1st April 2019.

Should you have any queries please contact Mr Kershaw in the Design & Innovation Department.

Yours faithfully

Mr M Kershaw

Design and Innovation – (Head of KS3 and Engineering Coordinator)
