

Over the summer I would like you to find a news article that is linked to at least one of these concepts. You need to print this off and write a short synopsis (summary) of what the article is and how it links to the theory....this will be shared with the rest of the group.

The four concepts we have covered are:

Opportunity cost

Positive and normative statements

Government policies

Economic problem