

Revision Questions for Paper 2

Relationships and Families

2 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Give two religious beliefs on the purpose of marriage.
- b) Give two examples of a family.
- c) Give two religious beliefs about attitudes towards Divorce.
- d) Give two religious beliefs about the purpose of the family.
- e) Give two religious beliefs about gender equality.
- f) Give two religious beliefs on homosexuality
- g) Give two religious beliefs on remarriage
- h) Give two religious beliefs on contraception

4 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about sex before marriage. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions
- b) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about living together before marriage. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- c) Explain contrasting beliefs in contemporary Britain about homosexuality. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- d) Explain contrasting beliefs in contemporary Britain about contraception. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- e) Explain two religious beliefs about marriage. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- f) Explain two contrasting religious beliefs about divorce. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- g) Explain two religious views about the role of parents. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- h) Explain two contrasting beliefs on remarriage. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- i) Explain two contrasting beliefs on the role of men and women. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions

5 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain two religious beliefs about the adultery. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- b) Explain two religious views on artificial contraception. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- c) Explain why some religious believers oppose same-sex marriage. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- d) Explain Religious teachings about divorce. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- e) Explain two religious beliefs about the role of parents. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- f) Explain the purpose that family serves in society today. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- g) Explain how men and women are equal in contemporary society. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- h) Explain religious teaching on marriage in contemporary society. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.

12 Mark Exam Questions

- a) "Women and men have equal rights in relationships"
- b) "The Christian Church should not take a view on family planning"
- c) "Same-sex parents are just as good at bringing up children as other parents"
- d) "The main aim of marriage is procreation"
- e) 'Contraception should never be allowed.'
- f) 'Sex outside marriage is always wrong.'
- g) 'Divorce should never be allowed.'
- h) 'Marriage is the most important sacrament.'

Religion and Life

2 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Give two reasons why religious believers might oppose animal experimentation.
- b) Give two reasons why people agree with euthanasia.
- c) Give two situations in which a person might seek an abortion
- d) Give two reasons why people choose to be vegetarian.
- e) Give two examples of what religious believers might do to help to carry out the duty of stewardship.
- f) Give two religious beliefs about pollution.
- g) Give two religious beliefs about eating meat.
- h) Give two religious beliefs about dominion.
- i) Give two religious beliefs about how the world came into existence
- j) Explain two religious beliefs about the afterlife
- k) Give two religious beliefs about how humans came into existence

4 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about Euthanasia. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- b) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about abortion. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one
- c) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about animal experimentation. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- d) Explain two religious beliefs about the use of animals for food. In your answer you must refer to one or more religious traditions.
- e) Explain two contrasting religious views about creation
- f) Explain two religious views about the environment
- g) Explain two religious views about the origins of life
- h) Explain two religious views about the origins of the world

5 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain two religious beliefs about abortion. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- b) Explain two religious beliefs about euthanasia. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- c) Explain two ways in which Christians respond to environmental issues. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- d) Explain two religious beliefs about animal experimentation. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- e) Explain two religious beliefs about the afterlife. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- f) Explain two religious beliefs about how the world was created. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- g) Explain two religious beliefs about stewardship. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- h) Explain two religious beliefs about evolution. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.

12 Mark Exam Questions

- a) "Science has made the creation story unbelievable."
- b) "The earth belongs to us so we can do what we like with it."
- c) "It doesn't matter if the oil runs out as scientists will invent something to take its place."
- d) Humans have been given dominion over the world, so we can do what we want with it."
- e) 'There must be life after death.'
- f) 'Religious believers should not eat meat.'
- g) 'Religious believers should always fight for life to be preserved.'
- h) 'The only acceptable reason to have an abortion is when the woman's life is at risk.'
- i) 'The right to die should always take priority over the sanctity of life.'
- j) 'Evolution proves that religious beliefs about the origins of life are wrong.'

Peace and Conflict
2 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Give two types protest
- b) Give two criteria for a just war
- c) Give two criteria for a holy war
- d) Give two reasons for war
- e) Give two ways Christians help victims of war
- f) Give two ways Christians work for reconciliation
- g) Give two reasons nuclear weapons are wrong

4 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about using nuclear weapons. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- b) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about there ever being able to be a Just War. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- c) Explain two beliefs in contemporary British society about whether there can ever be a Holy war. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- d) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about pacifism. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- e) Explain two religious beliefs about violent protests. In your answer you must refer to one or more religious traditions.
- f) Explain two religious beliefs about reasons for fighting in war. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- g) Explain two religious beliefs about justice. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- h) Explain two contrasting views about reconciliation. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.

5 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain two religious beliefs about Holy War. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- b) Explain two religious beliefs about peace. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- c) Explain two religious beliefs about justice. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- d) Explain two religious beliefs about pacifism. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- e) Explain two religious beliefs about reconciliation. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- f) Explain two religious beliefs about Just War. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.
- g) Explain two religious beliefs about how to deal with victims of war. Refer to sacred writings or another source of Christian belief and teaching in your answer.

12 Mark Exam Questions

- a) 'War is always right.'
- b) 'Religious believers should be pacifist.'
- c) 'There is no such thing as a Holy War.'
- d) 'There is no such thing as a Just War.'
- e) 'There is never any valid reason for fighting in war.'
- f) 'Nuclear weapons should never be used.'
- g) 'Violent protests are the best way to argue your point.'
- h) 'It is only the responsibility of government to help victims of war.'

Crime and Punishment

2 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Give two reasons why crime is committed.
- b) Give two examples of hate crime.
- c) Give two religious beliefs about attitudes towards law breakers.
- d) Give two ways religious believers are working to reform in prison.
- e) Give two of the causes of crime.
- f) Give two reasons why the work of charities is important.
- g) Give two religious beliefs about corporal punishment.
- h) What is the difference between civil and criminal law?

4 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about corporal punishment. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- b) Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about forgiveness. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- c) Explain two similar religious beliefs about Death Penalty. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions.
- d) Explain two contrasting religious beliefs about Death Penalty. In your answer you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious traditions
- e) Explain two similar religious beliefs about lawbreakers
- f) Explain two contrasting religious beliefs about the aims of punishment
- g) Explain two contrasting religious views about suffering
- h) Explain two similar religious views about prison

5 Mark Exam Questions

- a) Explain why free will should not be seen as the right thing to do whatever you want. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- b) Explain how should relationships be restored if somebody causes somebody else to suffer? Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- c) Explain two aims of punishment. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- d) Explain two religious beliefs about evil actions. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- e) Explain two reasons why religious believers think that prison is an effective means of punishment Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.
- f) Explain two religious beliefs about the treatment of offenders. Refer to sacred writings or another source of religious belief and teaching in your answer.

12 Mark Exam Questions

- a) "People who break the law should be punished severely."
- b) "There is never any reason why somebody should commit a crime."
- c) "Why does God allow people to suffer?"
- d) A life sentence should mean life in prison.
- e) It is never right to execute a murderer
- f) It is the duty of all victims to forgive.