Why study English Literature? The English Literature course is split into two topics: 'Aspects of Tragedy' and 'Elements of Crime'. Currently, we study 'Othello', 'Tess of the D'Urbervilles' and 'Death of a Salesman', for Paper 1 and move on to 'Oliver Twist', 'Atonement' and poetry by Crabbe, Browning and Wilde, for Paper 2. The A-Level builds upon the analytical essays written at GCSE and introduces you to critical theories, such as Feminism, Marxism and Eco-Critical theory. You will then be supported in applying a theory to your choice of novel and poetry for the NEA. Students enjoy this opportunity to read and analyse their selected author and the process of writing and answering your own essay question sets you up for dissertation writing at university. In terms of job opportunities, media and publishing can be a good fit for an English Literature graduate, as they offer a good way to apply your knowledge of the written language. These skills will also serve you well in advertising and marketing. Teaching is another option; from primary education right up to tertiary, English as a subject is considered important at all stages. The analytical skills associated with such a degree also apply well to subjects such as Law. Generally speaking, English Literature is a degree well respected by potential universities and employers, owing to the numerous transferable skills it demonstrates.
