

Christmas Family Support Guide for the Derbyshire Dales

In this guide you will find information on:

- Food Bank information
- Financial Support
- Winter Holiday Activity and Food (HAF) projects

Food Banks:

Elim Church:

You can self-refer for a one-week emergency food parcel, please ring us on 01335 661237 to book your parcel. If you require more than just the one parcel, we ask that you seek a referral from any agency or professional that knows you. If you're not sure how to access a referral, we are more than happy to help you with that.

Ozzie's Kitchen:

Ossie's Kitchen at St. Oswald's Church Centre provides a home cooked meal on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month. Just drop in between 4pm and 6pm to share a table and have a home-cooked meal, 3 courses for a suggested donation of £3 an adult /£1 a child. Ossie's Kitchen will be open on Tuesday 7th and 21st December (Take away's can also be provided)

Financial Support:

Winter Pressures:

The Winter Pressures referral form will initiate the process, and once received the Community Response Unit will work with the client to link them to appropriate support and advice.
