Dear Parents and Carers

INSET Day dates for the Spring Term 2025

There has been a change to one of our scheduled INSET Days for the Spring Term.

There was a QEGS INSET Day planned for Friday 7th February 2025. This INSET Day will now be moved to Tuesday 7th January 2025, which will follow an existing INSET day on Monday 6th January 2025.

This will mean that students will return to school from their festive break on Wednesday 8th January 2025.

Provision for Yr12-13 BTEC students who have exams in the first week of term is being planned by Mrs Morgan and further details will follow.

We apologise for this late notice and change to dates. However, this is to bring forward some essential staff training to the very start of the term.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch with your child's relevant Head of Year.

Kind regards

Mr S Garrity
Headteacher
